"The first thing I noticed when I stepped out of the plane was the cold. It was a familiar cold, the kind that makes you shiver and hunch your shoulders. I had heard that the weather in the north was harsh, but I didn't realize it would be so... so different. The air was thick and heavy, like a blanket. I had never experienced anything like this before.
 The people here were different too. They had a way of looking at you that was intense, almost... almost scary. I had heard that the people in the north were strange, but I didn't realize it would be so... so different. The air was thick and heavy, like a blanket. I had never experienced anything like this before.
